

Biography
Jeff W. Dick
MainStreet Bank

Jeff W. Dick is the Chairman, CEO and President of MainStreet Bank, (OTCBB: MNSB). MainStreet Bank is a community bank which maintains branches in Herndon, Fairfax, McLean and Arlington.

Jeff started his career as a bank regulator with the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC), advancing to the level of field manager in Washington, D.C. prior to his departure. He moved to London in 1996 as an advisor to the Bank Supervision Division of The Bank of England (U.K. Central Bank), in an effort to assist in modernizing their risk-based approach to banking supervision. In 1999, Jeff returned to the Washington, D.C. metropolitan area and transitioned into a commercial banking career.

Jeff has an M.B.A. with distinction from the University of London, a management diploma of the Imperial College (London), and a B.S.B.A. in both accounting and management from the University of North Dakota. He serves on the Board of Directors of the Dulles Regional Chamber of Commerce, the Fairfax Law Foundation, and the Herndon Visitors Center.
