

Michael Estelle, Supplier Diversity Coordinator
Fairfax County Department of Purchasing and Supply Management

Michael Estelle, as the County's Supply Diversity Coordinator, has maintains one of the most successful Supplier Diversity programs in the country. Michael has a background in the Fairfax County Procurment arena working for the Health Department and the Reston Community Center. Michael, being a previous small business operator brings unique understanding to his position as a Supply Diversity Champion in that he understands how difficult it can be to manuver larger organizations such as Fairfax County. To that end educating the vendor community is his passion for his current position.