

Mihae Kim is the founder and owner of Gimga Design Group. Mihae has over 20 years of experience in the graphic design field. Prior to starting Gimga Group in 1991, Mihae worked for Brown & Craig and RS Jensens in Baltimore, Maryland and Hembrech Terrell International in New York. Mihae has designed hundreds of projects throughout her career including logos, packages, trade show materials, publications, journals, newsletters, and websites. His list of clients include non-profit organization, such as World Environment Center, Landscape Architecture Foundation, Historic Roads, The World Bank, Embassy of the Republic of Korea, The Smithsonian Institute as well as corporations and small businesses. She received her BFA from the Corcoran School of Art in 1985. Past president of the Korean American Artists Association, Board member of the Korean American Coalition, Chair for the Children's (Youth) Art Festival, member of Art Director's Club, DC.

Gimga Group, Inc. is a Washington, DC-based full service firm specializing in communication, design, and media development. Innovation and creativity drive our quest for excellence in product and service. From traditional print materials to the latest interactive web development, we offer professional services to fit any client. And with our constant upgrading of design skills and technology, no project is beyond our reach.